Instructions for inclusion on our web site.

Here is the template for information to be added to our web site www.fpcjobs.info.
It is important that you fill it in with block capital letters.

The Bullet points have a maximum number of spaces on the site so keep them within the spaces provided.

Have your resume reviewed by Jeff and supply an updated copy with this form.

You may supply your own picture or have it taken on by FPCJOBS Thursday prior to the meeting at no charge.

Come "dressed to impress" for your picture.

Based on the new demand for applicants to have knowledge across functional areas you are allowed to have your information on the web site in up to three (3) functional areas. You will need to supply us with a headline for each functional area along with corresponding bullet points for each.

We need for you to supply all information together at one time. If you are having your picture made by
